Once again, the State of Arkansas has adopted An Arkansas History for Young People as an official textbook for middle-level and/or junior-high-school Arkansas-history classes. This fourth edition incorporates new research done after extensive consultations with middle-level and junior-high teachers from across the state, curriculum coordinators, literacy coaches, university professors, and students themselves. It includes a multitude of new features and is now full color throughout. This edition has been completely redesigned and now features a modern format and new graphics suitable for many levels of student readers. Includes data for the executive branch of the Federal Government only. The book charts out the history of Geographical Thought from early times to the present day in a single compact volume. Its main focus is on the modern period—beginning with Humboldt and Ritter—more specifically on conceptual developments since the Second World War. NEW TO THE SECOND EDITION The second edition is thoroughly revised and incorporates five new chapters dealing with: ? Nature, Method, Basic Ideas and Conceptual Structure of Geography ? The Problem of Dualities and How it was Resolved ? Nature and Role of Geography as a Social Science—Geographical vs. Sociological Imagination ? Time vis-à-vis Space—The Pattern-Process Perspective in Geographic Research ? New Directions in the Twenty-First Century Human Geography TARGET AUDIENCE • BA/B.Sc. (Hons.) Geography • BA/B.Sc. (General) Geography • MA/M.Sc. Geography • Aspirants of Civil Services For anyone interested in recent American research on climate, cities, Geographical Information Systems, Latin America, or any of the other subfields in geography, this volume provides representative accounts of American geographers' contributions in 47 specialty areas. This wide range of specialties comprises both a comprehensive reference and a 'state of the discipline' report. - ;Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers' current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography. As such, it is both. This book surveys and analyzes the principal legal doctrines affecting copyright practice around the world, in both transactional and litigation settings. The volume is a synthesis of copyright law and practice, taking into account the Berne Convention, the TRIPs Agreement, and the advent of the Internet. National copyright rules on protectible subject matter, ownership, term, and rights are covered in detail and compared from country to country, as are topics on moral rights and neighboring rights. Separate sections cover topics such as territoriality, national treatment and choice of law, as well as the treaty and trade arrangements that underlie substantive copyright norms. Geography as an academic discipline dates back to the last few decades of the nineteenth century. However, during the preceding centuries a large body of English-language literature relevant to the field of special geography was published. Four Centuries of Special Geography lists all the works published before 1888 and includes descriptions of each entry and notes on later editions. This comprehensive study guide covers every topic in the last two sections of the HSC Geography course and has been specifically created to maximize exam success. This guide has been designed to meet all study needs, providing up-to-date information in an easy-to-use format. Excel HSC Geography contains: 108 study cards for revision on the go or at home comprehensive coverage of the entire HSC Geography course, with maps, diagrams and source materials a summary of the outcomes and content for each of the three sections of the course a range of exercises and questions with answers to improve skills in Geography numerous exercises and selected answers to sharpen your geographical skills, especially useful for the multiple choice and short answer sections of the HSC exam key words and concepts are highlighted throughout and grouped in a comprehensive glossary extended case studies and information on Ecosystems at Risk, Urban Places and People and Economic Activity two sample HSC-style examination papers a full-colour, eight page section of stimulus material lists of useful websites throughout The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya, the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya.
